"For this oracle is like no other: It is for the lost and lonely, the broken-hearted and the orphans and misfits--for the wanderers and the strangers even in the midst of friends. This is your guide to finding your way, changing your world, mending a broken heart and discovering your soul family while still on the planet. If you're brave enough, asking their advice can reveal a world of sweet beauty, whimsical rhymes and steadfast courage. So say farewell to fear! Walk through the veil, and be prepared to enter their magical world." - Lucy Cavendish, in the companion book to the Oracle of Shadows and LightA Candy Cane Angel and an Absinthe Fairy, A Clockwork Pumpkin and a Sewer Mermaid--who are these odd wide-eyed beings that refuse to "put on a happy face" or be forced into the gray garb of normality?These eerie messengers are denizens of the Oracle of Shadows & Light, a lavishly illustrated 45-card deck featuring the vibrant artwork of American artist Jasmine Becket-Griffith. However, it's the words, heart and perceptive insight of Lucy Cavendish that bring these cheeky beings to life within the 136-page companion book.From the Lady with a Bosch Egg to the Three Witchy Sisters, the Lantern Fairy to the Angel de los Muertos, each of these sweetly bizarre envoys encourage users to feel, speak and behave authentically.Although the Oracle of Shadows & Light isn't a saccharine "love and light" New Age deck, it's not a "dark" one, either. Rather, it's a deck that embraces the off-kilter, the idiosyncratic, the weird--those spirits, and individuals, who don't seem to fit in any pre-drilled hole made by religion, family or society.
