Customer Reviews

I loved this book, and have read it three times. Claudia's aunt Peaches is having a baby! Claudia is overjoyed when her little cousin Lynn born. And even happier that she's her godmother! A little too happy actually...Claudia is over at her Aunt Peaches house way too much. She keeps bringing over gifts, telling her aunt how to raise Lynn, and breaking things. Finally, Aunt Peaches cannot take it any longer, and blows up at Claud. She implies that Claudia is rude, and pesty. Claudia cannot believe her ears, and gets very angry and doesn't come over or speak to Peaches. Meanwhile, Claud, Stacey, and Abby's social studies class are taking a trip to Philadelphia! There, she finally understands why Peaches was angry at her due to Claudia's own experience in Philly. This book was totally cool, you've got to read it!

This book inspires me most because when my aunt gave birth to my goddaughter, she nearly died. I nearly cried when I read the part when Peaches gave birth to Lynn. I gave this book a 5* because it's a great book and I think you should buy it!!

I really enjoyed this book, although it is not my favourite BSC book. I liked the way Ann Martin made Claudia's personal experience reflect her family experience. Claudia eventually realizes that the way she feels about a girl in her class is the way her Aunt, Peaches, feels about Claudia. Not the best BSC book I have read but still very very good. You'd be mad not to read it!
