Customer Reviews

I have bought several Mr. Putter books and this is my least favorite so far. Not nearly as funny as Mr Putters picks the Pears, or as hilarious as Mr. Putter walks the Dog.It's Mr. Putter, so therefore worth having in your collection. Maybe others will find it likeable, but there was none of the humor in this that we usually find with Mr. Putter. It was just a story.

Please refer to my other reviews of Cynthia Rylant's books! They are unique, funny, and terrific for people who enjoy reading aloud and for the children who are lucky enough to be listening to them and looking at the marvelous illustrations.

Great book for kids, parents, grandparents, everyone! Story is humorous and takes a realistic look at how we are. Artwork really makes the book. We laughed so hard reading to a grandchild that we bought it for another grandchild in a different family.

Read it. Loved it. Enjoyed it. We have all of the Mr Putter books and this one was pretty great. Share these with your children - it is a happy time reading these together.

Cynthia Rylant's stories truly are a delight. My daughter devours them and giggles often from the animal antics. I find the characters charming, and quirky, yet still so realistically developed for children's stories that our whole family truly can't wait to read the latest tale. Dear Cynthia, please keep them coming!!!

Mr Putter and Tabby are back for an all new adventure. This time they decide to join a baseball team. The cartoon- like illustrations in the book are really funny. Tabby is a sweet kitty that always has a cute expression on her face. This is a great book for early readers. There are pictures on every page and only a few sentences to each page as well. I enjoyed reading this book. I have read others in the series and this one was funny like the others. This book is good for early readers. If they enjoy the Mr Putter series they will like this one as well.

Our whole family loves Mr. Putter and Tabby, as well as Mrs. Teaberry and Zeke! These stories are humorous and heartwarming. Appeals to all ages.

This is another good book about Mr. Putter, Tabby, Mrs. Teaberry and Spike by Cynthia Rylant. I got this for my grandsons and they really enjoyed it. I like all the Mr. Putter books except "Mr. Putter and Tabby Ride the Train" Cats and dogs were not allowed on the train and Mr. Putter and Mrs. Teaberry found a way to sneak them on and I think that is a bad lesson for children so I would not advise getting that one. However, the other 14 or 15 or so books are great and I know your kids or grandkids ages 1 to 8 years would really enjoy them.
