Customer Reviews

Very good historical biography of the Popes from Peter to Benedict. I have some of the other Chronicle of the... books. They are all very good, informative, and as far as I know accurate. Recommended for historical fact lovers.

This book covers an incredible amount of time and briefly covers enough about each pope to keep readers interested and engaged from start to finish.

Mr Maxwell-Stuart having thoroughly investigated the "Vicars of Christ" presented for all to see the human side of the men who direct the Catholic Church. After reading only a small portion thus far, I better understand as will everyone, that being Pope takes courage, determination, and the skills of a first class diplomat to direct such a world wide organization.

I like to collect these kind of books. I would know all the Popes that led us Catholics.

A disappointment
