This is the book I needed for my worship team. We have read and discussed several other books on worship, both devotionals and "worship how-to" books. Those conversations have usually been fruitful, but this book took us to the next level. We have grown spiritually, as individual musicians, and as a team leading worship. Get a copy for everyone on your team, you won't regret it!

"Are you here to make your name famous or God's name famous?" It was so good! A great read. I think as leaders we can all learn from this book. In politics, I work so hard to make my name an asset and sometimes I forget why I do it. This book is a good reminder that sometimes we need to "Check ourselves" and "Check our Priorities" when serving God and his Kingdom. This book shares the author's stories in working to make God's name famous.

This book is awesome and it doesn't just apply to Musicians. This is applicable to anyone who is trying to navigate through identity issues and figuring out who you are in Christ. Learning to laugh at your flaws and deal with the struggle everyone has with insecurity. I love it, and recommend it to everyone I know.

Great book for worship teams and leaders to go through together. Challenging and inspiring all the same. Good thoughts, and practical tips throughout. Great discussion points over topics like authenticity, excellence, and purpose behind worship leading!

Kurtis is a phenomenal worship leader, a talented musician, and an authentic friend. I'll update my review once I finish his book, but I wouldn't hesitate buying a copy if I were you!
