Customer Reviews

I love this book and so do my kiddos! We read the story and then we did a writing sample where the children choose what kind of animal feet they wanted and why. I had different samples of the different kinds of feet and they glued them to the bottom of the writing sample. The book was really cute and informational. This is a great informative-narrative if you are looking for one!

I read this last week to my grandson's 2nd grade class, and they loved it!!!! I did something that made it more fun, I think. The format of this book is the left side has the "non-fiction" facts about a particular animal, and the right page, has a picture of a child with that animal's teeth. To keep the "surprise," I covered the right side of the book so the class couldn't see the picture of child until they heard the fact page, and then I took the cover off. It worked exactly as I hoped! They loved the surprise rather than looking at that picture while I read the facts on the left. A real hit...

My students loved this book! Thanks to the wonderful first grade teacher WOW blogspot for recommending this!

Love it! It is very educational fun to read. It is pretty funny as well. As a matter of fact, my kids love it Wonderful book with great pictures and a cute story! Love how it has facts as well as fictional parts!

Very cute book. My son loved it. I think we will be ordering the other books in the series...

It was an awesome book for my first grade read aloud. We even did a project with it!

A very good book. The first graders that I read it to, really enjoyed the book!!
