I ordered this book/cd for my daughter's upcoming 4th birthday. I haven't been able to resist listening to the songs. I'm listening to them often on my own when she is at preschool because I really enjoy it. The songs are educational and the music is easy listening and enjoyable for adults as well as children. The songs are by Jane and Steven Schoenberg and the fun illustrations in the lyric book are by Cynthia Fish. The songs included are: "Bones, Bones, Bones", "It's your Muscles", "Keep the Beat", "Teeth are Neat", "Everyone Passes Gas", "Brain Power", "Inhale, Exhale", "Amazing Senses", "Amazing Senses", "Have Fun with your Hair", "Skin's In", "On the Move", and "Celebrate our Bodies". I love this idea of learning through music and I don't know why there aren't tons of CD's available out there like this. Kids can memorize jiggles from commercials--if they are going to learn stuff about hamburgers from jiggles why can't they learn everything thing else they need to know. Education should be fun and music is the universal language. My favorite songs are "Bones, Bones, Bones", "Everyone Passes Gas", and "Celebrate our Bodies". "Everyone Passes Gas" is delightful--it's humorous and tasteful at the same time. I tell you it's such a relief to not have to hold in a toot anymore. When I was a kid they didn't have books like "Everyone Poops" and "The Gas We Pass--The Story of Farts". You never saw the Brady Bunch kids pass gas. What a wonderful thing that kids today don't have to feel shame about their bodies. "Celebrate our Bodies" is a beautiful song about the bodies that we have. I love the chorus and the way it's sung--"Let's celebrate our bodies, Be glad for who we are, Because we're very special."
