An Adventure In Healing And Wholeness: The Healing Ministry Of Christ In The Church Today

Synopsis

James K. Wagner has condensed his well-known workshop on healing and wholeness into an easy-to-use workbook format. Field-tested and designed for church groups, this seven-session study will provide participants with a basic understanding of the holistic approach to health and of the relationship between prayer and healing. An Adventure in Healing and Wholeness offers individual and group reflection, study materials, and other information needed to begin a healing ministry within a congregation. Also in Spanish and Korean.

Customer Reviews

We will be using this for an introduction to healing. It is wonderful. Asks all the right questions
Teaches the right disciplines

Provides a fundamental understanding of a wholistic approach to health; a relationship between prayer and healing; and the resources, materials, and information needed to begin a healing ministry in the local church. The workbook includes both personal and group reflection and study.
"When we pray for our own healing or the healing of another, we are not in a begging posture; rather, we are intentionally cooperating with God's good will for health, wholeness, and salvation." --
James K. Wagner

Very good book
