Customer Reviews

I'm reviewing a state each week with my 6-year-old who loves mazes. He's moved on from simple mazes. This is a step up from really simple. It's enough to keep him wanting to do them. He does complain that it isn't always obvious where you start/stop.

I bought this for my autistic nephew who is obsessed with Geography. He poured over it all day, repeating all the little facts that are included about each state. He is 12 but is still about 6 mentally in this area so it was a perfect gift. I don't know if he has done any of the mazes yet but I think they are suitable for him to figure out.

This was a gift at Christmas and the kids loved the mazes and asked for more of them to play with.

thought it might be great for our 4 yr old grandson, he loves mazes - but it's a bit more difficult than he can handle. Would recommend for kids a bit older. Great book at any rate!

We are using this as a fun supplement to our USA study of each state. This is perfect for my 8 and 10 year old.
